

panaflo, saloonkeeper, and Christ Salvatore at 900 W. 25th pl.

Charles Burns told Judge Prindiville he was paid $100 to assault Wm. Aiston, 559 Melrose st., by Edward Redpath, saloonkeeper.

Beer and milk have nearly equal nutritive value declared Edward Gudeman before American Society of Chemists.

Committee of county board members to visit jail today. Planning better building.

Lillian Kliza killed by auto of Alfred Newcomb, 7050 N. Clark st., at 5th av. and Lake st. Newcomb held.

Mary Vandervort, 18, Evanston High School girl, missing from home at 1452 N. Fargo av., Rogers Park.

Chief Justice Olson and Chief of Police Gleason may agree to allow harmless "souses" their freedom without appearing in court.

Warren Crowell, 214 W. Monroe and S. D. Fletcher, 71, 6928 Glenwood av., hit by auto of George Foell, 7816 Aberdeen. Crowell dead; Fletcher dying; Foell held.

Karl Muller, 2029 Sheffield av., had skull fractured when motorcycle hit auto at Fullerton and Southport avs.

Federal courts of Chicago and Milwaukee closed today for burial of late Judge Wm. Seaman, who died last Monday.

Mrs. Mary Angello, 1326 W. Ohio, hit Paul Glottino on head with axe. Man may die. Says he tried to attack her.

Mrs. Emma Langer, saloonkeeper, 531 W. Jackson blvd., bankrupt. War, suffrage and prohibition causes.

ATTACKS SURFACE LINES

Completing his argument to oust the joint operating board of the Surface Lines, Ass't State's Atty Plumb charged that the car lines signed an agreement to break the public utilities law when it went into effect. He contended that individuals have not the right to exercise powers of corporations in managing utilities.

TELLS SENSATIONAL STORY OF SINKING OF BAYANO

Ayr, Scotland. — Heart rending tales of last awful moments aboard British auxiliary cruiser Bayano before she dove to bottom in St. Patrick's channel, victim of a torpedo, were told today by Lieutenant Commander Guy and little group of survivors.

"Five minutes after the German torpedo struck us the Bayano went to the bottom," said Guy. "Of the 220 men aboard her I am certain only the 26 picked up by the Balmarino and Tara were saved. The others were killed by the explosion or went swirling down in the vortex of the sinking ship.

"The last I saw of Captain Carr he was standing on the bridge, cool and smiling. He waved good-by to the men at the boats and shouted, 'Good luck to you, boys.' I dove from the deck and in almost a minute, it seemed, the Bayano was out of sight."

London. — Determined effort to take Smyrna, chief city of Asiatic Turkey, is now being made by allied naval forces in east. Six warships from allied fleet at the Dardanelles have reinforced Rear Admiral Peirse's squadron. City may fall before many hours.

DOPE SUPPLY RUNS OUT AT WASHINGTON—SERIOUS

Washington, March 13.—Washington's "dope" supply, laid in by habitual users to circumvent the Harrison law as long as possible, is practically exhausted at last, local physicians said today. The hospitals are beginning to be besieged by fiends.

BIG LINER CALLS FOR HELP

Bordeaux, March 13. — Canadian Pacific liner Montrose is ashore on Portugal bank near Ebura, Senegal, on west coast of Africa. Her wireless is calling for assistance.